

A Great Transformation?

Global Perspectives on Contemporary Capitalisms

Mauthausen Memorial

Lecture about the History of Mauthausen

Excursion to the Former Concentration Camp Mauthausen

January 13, 2017, 1.00 p.m. – evening

Sponsored and hosted by Mauthausen Memorial

Mauthausen Memorial

Excursion to the Former Concentration Camp Mauthausen

Between 1938 and 1945, around 190,000 people from more than 40 nations were imprisoned in the Mauthausen and Gusen concentration camps or in one of their subcamps. At least 90,000 people were murdered.

1.00 p.m. – 1.45 p.m. Uni-Center

- Lecture about the history of Mauthausen: Andreas Kranebitter from the Department of Sociology at the University of Vienna will shed light on the history of Mauthausen from a sociological perspective. He does research on concentration camps and genocide and cooperates with the Mauthausen Memorial.

2.00 p.m. Bus Transfer to Mauthausen Memorial

- Audio guided tour: in German, English, French, Hebrew, Czech, Dutch, Hungarian, Italian, Polish, Russian, Spanish through the former concentration camp.
- Exhibition or the opportunity to ask the experts about details of Mauthausen.

For further information in English please visit the homepage of the Mauthausen Memorial: <https://www.mauthausen-memorial.org/en>

Registration for the Excursion:

Please note that you have to be registered to join this excursion.

The Mauthausen Memorial Excursion is sponsored and hosted by: