

Female Managers in International Business

A lot of research has been done on the scarcity of female managers in international management so far. This project goes further and inquires the work and life situation of these women by looking at different disciplines. With the help of sociology, and psychology, light is shed on the circumstances and challenges of female managers in different forms of international assignments.

Related Publications

Fischlmayr, Iris C. & Kollinger, Iris (2010) Work Life Balance – A Neglected Issue Amongst Austrian Female Expatriates. International Journal of Human Resource Management. Vol. 21, No. 4, 455-486.

Fischlmayr, Iris C. (2008) Balancing Work and Life in Expatriate Situations – A special Challenge for Women? IfM-Impulse. pp. 10-16. Hallwang/Salzburg: IfM – Institut für Management.

Hofbauer, Johanna & Fischlmayr, Iris C. (2005) The Feminization of International Assignments: Conquering Empty Castles? International Studies of Management and Organization. Special Issue on Expatriation. Vol. 34, No. 3. 46-67.

Collaboration Partners:

Dr. Iris Kollinger, WU Wien