are delighted to invite you to a

SEMINAR ON INTERNATIONAL AND EU TAX LAW

11 and 12 October 2013 — University of Linz, Austria

The University of Linz (Austria) and the University of Bergamo (Italy) are delighted to announce a meeting for Ph.D. Candidates in the field of International, European and Comparative Tax Law on Friday and Saturday 11 and 12 October 2013.

This meeting, which follows three successful events held in Bergamo in 2010 and 2012 and in Linz in 2011, is open to Ph.D. Candidates who want to present the main findings of their research. Each presentation will be supplemented and followed by intensive discussions on the topics raised to provide an intellectually challenging and interactive forum. The number of participants is limited to 16.

The seminar will be held at the University of Linz. The address of the University is Altenberger Straße 69, 4040 Linz, Austria, and the seminars will take place at the Business School (Management Center).

Participation is free of charge. Participants will bear their own costs of travel and accommodation.

Please RSVP by e-mail until 1 October 2013 to simone.loeffler@jku.at. Please include a one-page exposé of your research or presentation topic!

Should you require assistance with your travel or accommodation arrangements, please do not hesitate to contact us! As the date of the seminar approaches, we will distribute further information on the scientific program of the seminar, the social program, and other useful details.
