

Sign Up to Use the 24-Hour Study Zone

The 24-Hour Study Zone will be open outside of the library's regular operating hours. There will be no library personnel available at this time and the area will be monitored continuously by CCTV in real-time. During this time, only those affiliated with the university (students, faculty members, employees) may use their JKU Card to access this area.

Please sign up in advance at the Circulation Desk during library hours.

Terms and Conditions of Use:

- Any personal information provided (for access) will be stored and kept confidential in accordance with data privacy laws (archiving information).
- The 24-Hour Study Zone will be monitored continuously in real-time; images, however, will not be recorded.
- Only the registered user is authorized to use the card. The card may not be used by a third party to access the 24-Hour Study Zone. Passing the card on for use by someone else is not permitted. I also agree that I will not undertake any action intended to undermine or circumvent the access control system, disable it, or impair its operability in any way.
- The University Library's 'Terms of Use' ("Library Rules") applies and the library's inventory is to be treated with the utmost care and respect.
- Any violation of these terms and conditions will result in revoking authorization to use the Study Zone area.
- Misuse of the JKU Card and violating the above listed rules can result in legal action.
- As a registered user of the 24-Hour Study Zone, I understand that no winter services will be provided on the JKU campus between 8:00 PM to 6:00 AM and being outside on the campus area during winter is at my own responsibility and risk.

I hereby understand and accept these terms and conditions and would like to sign up to use the 24-Hour Study Zone area.
