

CONTACT:

Students and scholars who seek additional information about the institute please contact:

Prof Dr Susanne Pernicka

Chair of the Institute
Head of the Department of Economic and Organizational Sociology susanne.pernicka@jku.at

Assoc Prof Dr Joachim Gerich

Deputy Chair of the Institute joachim.gerich@jku.at

Prof Dr Brigitte Aulenbacher

Head of the Department of Theoretical Sociology and Social Analysis brigitte.aulenbacher@jku.at

Prof Dr Johann Bacher

Head of the Department of Empirical Social Science Research johann.bacher@jku.at

Dr Karin Fischer

Head of the Department of Politics and Development Research karin.fischer@jku.at

See: www.jku.at/soz for information

INSTITUTE OF SOCIOLOGY.

The Institute of Sociology consists of four departments which focus on seven main areas:

- applied sociology,
- social theory,
- economic sociology,
- organisational sociology,
- political sociology,
- sociology of development
- and gender studies.

It combines sociological theory, methodology, theoretical and empirical research, global sociology and regional analysis.

More specifically the following research strands are represented:

- Sociology of Development
- Sociology of Deviant Behaviour
- Sociology of Education, Higher Education and Professions
- Sociology of Family
- Sociology of Health
- Sociology of Migration
- Sociology of Organisations
- Sociology of Politics
- Sociology of Work and the Economy

Within the faculty of social sciences and economics the institute offers three degrees:

- Bachelor
- Master
- PhD

STARTING PROJECT:

Social Survey Austria 2016:

Social Change over the past 30 years, www.jku.at/soz/content/e94921/e95827/e97931/e300521

CURRENT RESEARCH GROUP:

Research Unit 'Horizontal Europeanization':

An emerging social entity between national and global scales', funded by the German Research Foundation (project duration 2012-2018), <http://horizontal-europeanization.eu/en/>

FORTHCOMING CONFERENCE:

A Great Transformation? Global Perspectives on Contemporary Capitalisms

International Conference, 10-13 January 2017,
www.jku.at/conferences/content/e290365

SOME BOOKS:

