Student employee wanted!

The Department of Economic Policy (of the Institute of Economics) is looking for a student assistant (6-20 hours per week) to work in research and administration, starting November 1, 2022. The position is limited until September 30, 2023.

The job includes both administrative and content-related activities (such as editing lecture slides or minor literature and data research).

Good computer skills (MS-Office) are required. Knowledge in econometrics, in LaTeX or in Stata is an added bonus!

The timing of the work can be arranged flexibly. Workspace available at the institute!

The monthly salary for 15 hours per week is € 805,20 gross.

Please address your application (short cover letter plus CV) to ursula.mittendorfer-juen@jku.at by 15/09/2022 at the latest.
