Equality, Diversity and Inclusion
An International Journal

Making the difference – critical perspectives on the configuration of work, diversity and inequalities

Guest Editors
Brigitte Aulenbacher and Cäcilia Innreiter-Moser

Access this journal online .................................................................................. 526
Editorial advisory board .................................................................................. 527

GUEST EDITORIAL
Making the difference – critical perspectives on the configuration of work, diversity and inequalities
Brigitte Aulenbacher and Cäcilia Innreiter-Moser ........................................... 528

Rethinking differences and inequality at the age of globalization: a case study of white immigrant domestic workers in the global city of Chicago
Shue-Ju Ada Cheng ............................................................................................... 537

New maids – new butlers? Polish domestic workers in Germany and commodification of social reproductive work
Ewa Palenga-Möllenbeck ..................................................................................... 557

“People like us”: experiencing difference in the working life of immigrant women
Huriye Aygören and Monika Wilinska ................................................................. 575

Working hard with gender: gendered labour for women in male dominated occupations of manual trades and information technology (IT)
Louisa Sruitle ......................................................................................................... 592

“Psychopolitics” at work: the subjective turn in labour and the question of feminization
Alexandra Rau ...................................................................................................... 604

Gender, diversity and migration – challenges to Nordic welfare, gender politics and research
Birte Srum .............................................................................................................. 615

Book review ........................................................................................................ 629
Call for papers ..................................................................................................... 632