

Welfare Cities in Motion: Urban Community, Public Services and the Common Good, c. 1800–2000

Thursday 2 September 2021

Via Zoom: 09.00–16.30 CEST

Introduction: 09.00–09.15

• Mats Hallenberg & Magnus Linnarsson

Session 1: 09.15–10.45

- Jonas M. Albrecht, Johannes Kepler University Linz, Austria: Politics of food provisions. Vienna, Paris, and New York City, c. 1770–1870.
- Knut Dørum, University of Agder, Norway: The common good in urban sites in Norway c. 1850–1920.
- Richard Butler, Mary Immaculate College, Ireland: The politics of building new schools in the Irish city: religion, health, and welfare in Galway, c. 1940–60.

Street sweeper in Stockholm (1905). Photo: Stockholms stadsmuseum

The Workshop is open for all

Mandatory registration to obtain zoom-link.
Register to: magnus.linnarsson@historia.su.se

Session 2: 11.00–12.30

- Florian Müller, Zürich University, Switzerland: The national state, welfare cities and local practices of housing construction. The example of Swiss cities in the war and post-war period.
- Eleni Axioti, St Martin's School of Architecture, Great Britain: The British institutional architecture from the welfare state to the state workfare.
- Pål Brunnström, Roger Johansson, Robert Nilsson Mohammadi, Malmö University, Sweden: Social democratic hegemony and migration 1945–1970.

Session 3: 13.30–15.00

- Luz Irene Pyke, CONICET-UnaM, Argentine: Municipal governments and public management of power plants in Argentina, early 20th century.
- Marjaana Niemi, Tampere University, Finland: Municipal services in Helsinki in the late 19th and early 20th centuries.
- Josianni Cerasoli, University of Campinas, Brazil: International congresses and an agenda for urban projects (1910's–1920's).

Session 4: 15.15–16.30

- Henning Bro, Fredriksbergs stadsarkiv, Denmark: The welfare state and the expansion of regional recreational areas. The Danish capital metropolis in the mid-and post-war period.
- Mats Hallenberg & Magnus Linnarsson, Stockholm University, Sweden: Alternative paths to the welfare city: political contestation in Nordic capitals 1870–1920.
- Conclusions and final remarks

In co-operation with:

Institute
of Urban History
Stockholm

Stockholm
University

Department of History

Contact: magnus.linnarsson@historia.su.se

www.historia.su.se