

Beiträge des Instituts für Organisation der JKU auf der 33. EGOS-Konferenz 2017 in Kopenhagen

Schiemer, B./Schüßler, E./Sydow, J.: “Virtual songwriting at FAWM: Fostering creative processes through challenge and collaboration”.

Oka, C./Schüßler, E./Alexander, R./Lohmeyer, N./Ashwin, S.: “Towards transnational collaborative industrial relations: Analyzing the evolving relationships among lead firms and unions in the global garment industry”

Graber, G./Melchior, A./Schiemer, B./Schüßler, E./Sydow, J.: “Being there: The social construction of (physical and virtual) copresence”.

Schüßler, E./Lohmeyer, N./Ashwin, S./Alexander, R./Frenkel, S.: “Global competition vs ethical demands in the garment industry: Comparing structures and practices of organizing CSR in four countries”.

Lohmeyer, N./Schüßler, E.: “Risk constructions in labour standard auditing processes – Kafka’s photographic accident prevention”.

Kirchner, S./Schüßler, E.: „The organization of digital competition: Unmasking the role of platforms as market organizers”.

Bauer R.M./Barry, D.: “Poison or Tonic? Multiplicity within and between Institutional Logics”

Gegenhuber T.K./Bauer R.M./Dobusch L.: “Price, quality, identity: Three types of competition and governance in organizing crowds online”.

Hartl, B./ Hofmann, E.: „Trust & power in the sharing economy: An experimental approach”