

Informed Agreement Regarding Compliance to the Internal Regulations and the Operation Rules of USB

I, the undersigned, (please provide name and surname)

born on

have been informed that the duties of a student of a higher education institution are specified by Section 63 of Act No. 111/1998 Coll. cited below.

Section 63 Students' Obligations

- (1) The obligations of a student with respect to studies follow from his/her degree programme and the Study and Examination Regulations.
- (2) A student must comply with the internal regulations of the higher education institution and its constituent parts.
- (3) Furthermore, a student is obliged:
 - a) to pay study-related fees and provide the data needed for calculating the size of these fees;
 - b) to report his/her postal address to the higher education institution or its constituent part where he/she is enrolled;
 - c) to present himself or herself in person, when summoned by the Rector, the Dean or a higher education institution employee authorized by them, in order to discuss questions pertaining to the course of study or the termination of study.
- (4) Students neglecting their obligations under subsection (3) must reimburse the higher education institution for any resulting costs.

In accordance with the wording of Section 63, Par. 2, Act No. 111/1998 Coll., I swear:

- to follow the internal regulations of USB and the internal regulations of the faculty to which I am enrolled for study (hereinafter the faculty), or other parts of USB, which provides for my study and stay at USB (hereinafter the parts). The regulations are made public on <http://www.jcu.cz> and webpages of individual faculties and parts of USB;
- to follow the current Provisions and Decisions of the Rector, the dean of the faculty, or director of the appropriate part of USB, which are made public on http://www.jcu.cz/documents/rectors_proceedings and webpages of individual faculties and parts of USB;
- to follow the current regulations published within the Information Security Management System at USB (ISMS – accessible via login on <https://isms.jcu.cz/isms-dokumenty>) and when required will confirm its reading;
- to follow the provisions of the Library Rules of the Academic Library of USB while using its services (<http://www.lib.jcu.cz/o-knihovne-2/knihovni-dokumenty>);
- to follow the provisions of the Library Rules of the Library of the Faculty of Theology USB while using its services (<http://aries.tf.jcu.cz/~krizkova/krtf2019.pdf>);
- to follow the provisions of the Residence Accommodation Rules of the Dormitories and Canteens Office USB while using its services (http://kam.jcu.cz/kol_rad.htm);
- to regularly check the contents of the e-mail inbox provided by USB;
- while using the services of the Internal Payment System (IPS) to follow the provisions of the current regulations and especially the provisions of the Rector concerning the operation of IPS, which are published on http://www.jcu.cz/documents/rectors_proceedings ;
- to settle all undertakings to pay regarding USB at the latest by enrolment onto a further year, or before the completion of study at USB, especially those that lead to priority blocking on my IPS account.

I am aware of the fact that the whole of this informed agreement is to be found on USB webpages together with further information on https://www.jcu.cz/it_services (after login).

In České Budějovice, on

.....

signature