

V. N. Temlyakov, M. Ullrich and T. Ullrich are the winners of the 2021 Joseph F. Traub Prize for Achievement in Information-Based Complexity

The recipients of the 2021 Joseph F. Traub Prize for Achievement in Information-Based Complexity are Vladimir N. Temlyakov, Mario Ullrich and Tino Ullrich.

The Prize Committee consisted of the winners of the IBC prize of the last three years, Heping Wang, Guiqiao Xu, Jan Vybíral, Paweł Przybyłowicz, and the JoC editors Henryk Woźniakowski and Erich Novak. The recipients will share $3000 and will receive a plaque, to be presented at a suitable event.

This annual prize is given for outstanding contributions to information-based complexity.

Erich Novak