Specialized and internationally focused, our training aims at preparing students to operate in a complex and globalized environment.

RBS Programs are inspired by training provided by our foreign partners and are enriched with modules specific to the regional context.

Accredited by the AACSB and ranked N°1 in Morocco and North Africa by Jeune Afrique magazine, Rabat Business School continues its ascent by integrating the prestigious international ranking Quacquarelli Symonds, QS World University Rankings 2022. Rabat Business School programs have been mainly developed in partnership with more than 100 prestigious business schools and universities worldwide.

We invite you to watch the video representing our infrastructures
Morocco is a country which combines modernity and traditions. The strong economic development of the country is carried out in the respect of ancestral traditions of welcoming and tolerance. Rabat Business School, International University of Rabat, offers programs dedicated to international students to allow them to discover this economic and cultural alchemy. Combining academic quality (RBS is accredited by the AACSB) and the pleasure of discovering the country’s riches, our International Summer School Program responds to requests for cultural and international openness from the students of our partners, coming from all over the world.

Welcome to Rabat, Morocco!

Dr. Olivier APTEL
Dean of Rabat Business School

PROGRAM ACTIVITIES

 TOUR OF RABAT

Rabat, the capital of Morocco, is an elegant city that follows the usual structure of major Moroccan imperial cities with the original downtown, which is called Medina, surrounded by new modern neighborhoods. Rabat is rather quiet and is home to many tourist attractions such as: The Kasbah of the Udayas and the Mausoleum of King Mohammed V.

A tour of Rabat is organized for program participants at the beginning of the program.
Arabic calligraphy is the artistic practice of handwriting and calligraphy based on the alphabet. It is known in Arabic as “khatt”, derived from the word ‘line’, ‘design’. The Kufi model, featured here, is the oldest form and most widely used of the Arabic script. A calligraphy workshop is organized for the students.

Morocco is renowned for its delicious cuisine and what better way to immerse than an authentic cooking class. A fun and immersive way for students to learn and understand more of this wonderfully tasty cuisine. This is a great class for anyone looking to learn about traditional Moroccan cuisine that comes from a typical Moroccan home. You will learn how to prepare a home-style Moroccan meal. This activity takes place in a Moroccan home.
During this trip, students will get to first have a guided tour of the Roman city of Volubilis. The archaeological vestiges of this site bear witness to several civilizations. All the phases of its ten centuries of occupation, from prehistory to the Islamic period are represented.

Founded in 789 by Moulay Idriss I and made into the capital by his son Idriss II, Fez consists of three main sections: Fez el-Bali, Fez el-Jdid, and the Ville nouvelle. Its medina is an international attraction and was declared a UNESCO world heritage site in 1967.

« My experience in Morocco and at UIR can be summed up simply as a story of human kindness, generosity, and liberated learning. I am eternally grateful that UIR guided me with a team of the most selfless, wise, and genuine intellects I’ve ever met who provided me with a space and the resources to explore, discuss, and indulge in my greatest interests. My time here in Morocco and at UIR are something that I will never forget. I have developed a new family, home, and persona here and I can’t wait to return »

Irene Vellas, France, 2022

« Mon expérience à Rabat Business School a été très enrichissante. J’ai aimé découvrir une nouvelle culture, la chaleur des marocains ainsi que leur bienveillance. C’est un pays où les gens sont très accueillants, il est très facile de créer du lien et l’on ne se sent jamais seul. Il y a aussi les paysages qui sont magnifiques : durant les week-ends, j’ai beaucoup voyagé, il y a une multitudes de paysages (désert, montagne...) tous aussi incroyables. La vie sur le campus permet une grande proximité avec l’université. Il y a également un restaurant, une petite supérette, des activités sportives... C’est très sympa pour rencontrer les autres étudiantes d’échanges »
