The world is changing at an ever-faster pace. At the Johannes Kepler University Linz, we work on technologies and the ideas of tomorrow on a daily basis. At the same time, we educate over 21,000 young people to meet the demands of today’s job market. In short, we are Upper Austria’s largest institution for education and research. Are you interested in being a part of shaping the future of Austria’s most attractive campus university? We currently have a job opening starting August 3, 2020, for a:

University Assistant (must hold a Doctorate/Ph.D. degree) for a full-time position at the Institute of Computational Perception, to January 31, 2023

Job Reference Number: 4176

Job Duties:
- Conduct independent research in the fields of recommender systems, information retrieval, web/social media mining, multimedia, machine learning, user modelling and/or human-computer interaction
- Publish and disseminate research findings in journals and present at conferences
- Actively take part in the institute’s fund-raising activities
- Actively take part in scientific and industrial cooperation projects
- Independently teach university-level classes
- Support the institute’s teaching and administration tasks
- Co-supervise Bachelor’s/Master’s/Diploma theses
- Contribute to academic administration (e.g. in selection committees for professorship positions, etc.)

Your Qualifications:
- Extensive expertise and professional experience in at least one of the following fields (preferably several): recommender systems, information retrieval, web/social media mining, multimedia, machine learning, user modelling, human-computer interaction
- Strong publication record (in relation to “academic age”)
- Commitment, creativity, ability and desire to conduct independent scientific work as well as publish and disseminate research findings
- Fluency in English (both oral and written, level C2)
- Preferably some language proficiency in German (minimum B1 level) and a willingness to become fluent in German
- Ability and willingness to independently teach university-level classes and supervise students in the above-mentioned fields
- A strong social skill set
- Ideally, professional experience in securing external funding as well as in executing and administrating international cooperation projects

What We Offer:
- On the basis of full-time employment (40 hours/week) the minimum salary in accordance with the collective agreement is €3,889.50 gross per month (14 x per year, CA Job Grade: B1)
- Stable employer
- Attractive campus environment with good public transportation connections
- Attractive continual educational opportunities
- State-of-the-art research infrastructure
- Dynamic research environment
- Broad range of on-campus dining services/healthy meals (organic food at the cafeteria)
- Exercise and sports classes (USI)
- …and much more

Application Deadline: June 24, 2020.

The Johannes Kepler University wishes to increase the proportion of academic female faculty and, for this reason, especially welcomes applications by qualified women. If applicants are equally qualified, a woman will be given preference for this position. The university welcomes applications from qualified applicants with physical disabilities. These applications will be given special consideration.
How to Apply:
Prospective applicants interested in the multifaceted position are requested to electronically send an application in adherence to the stated criteria together with the requested documentation via our online portal jku.at/application or to the Johannes Kepler University Linz, Department of Human Resource Management, Altenberger Straße 69, A-4040 Linz. Please include “Job Reference Number 4176” in your application.

Contact:
If you have questions, please contact: Univ. Prof. Dr. Markus Schedl, P +43 732 2468 4716, E-mail: markus.schedl@jku.at.