THE GREIT LISBON SUMMER COURSE ON EUROPEAN TAX LAW

JUNE 21 – 25, 2010

HOST ORGANIZATION: IDEFF [\[www.ideff.pt\]](http://www.ideff.pt), PROF. DR. ANA PAULA DOURADO,
ADV. LLM JOSÉ ALMEIDA FERNANDES

DESCRIPTION OF THE COURSE

The second edition of “The GREIT¹ Lisbon Summer Course on European Tax Law” will cover general topics of European taxation, as well as selected issues currently on debate at both an academic and practical level.

The course is structured to foster debate among both lecturers and participants from different countries, enabling all participants to enter into a detailed analysis of the recent and pending Court of Justice’s case law and the current tax topics under discussion in the European Union (European Tax Law & Tax Treaties, Transfer Pricing, Procedural Tax Issues, Update on the Direct Tax Directives, Dividends Taxation, Cross-Border Losses, State Aid and Preliminary Referrals to the CJ), as well as on the follow-up and discussion of “The Charter of Basic EU Tax Principles” presented by Frans Vanistendael in the 2009 edition, and participate in the discussion to be held by Peter Wattel and Miguel Poiars Maduro on the “Demand and Supply-Side of the Preliminary Referrals to the Court of Justice”, respectively.

Furthermore, the GREIT Summer Course also comprises the analysis of case studies, where participants can explore the interaction of European Tax Law and their domestic tax systems.

¹ GREIT is a Group for Research on European and International Taxation founded by Prof. Dr. Cécile Brokelind, Univ. of Lund, Prof. Dr. Ana Paula Dourado, Univ. of Lisbon, Prof. Dr. Pasquale Pistone, Univs. of Salerno/WU Vienna, Prof. Dr. Dennis Weber, Univ. of Amsterdam.
